Wehave compiled, from various sources, the following disinterested testimonials, which were commanded from their several authors by the lofty patriotism, valor talents and success of Gen. HARRISON, long before he was named for the Presidency, and in times which cught to give them weight sufficient to bear down all the petty calumnies and quibbling objections which party malig nity may now presume to forgo against the war worn and time honored patriot and soldier.

The authorities we present against the puny attacks of Loco-Foco Federalism, and which we shall stereotype as an impregnable barricade a gainst all opposition, are no less than the Con-gressor THE UNITED STATES, the LEGISLATURES OF INDIANA, and of KENTUCKY, JAMES MADI-EON, JAMES MONROE, COL. RICHARD M. JOHN. SOR, ANTHONY WAYNE, LANGDON CHEVES, SI MOS, SAYDER GOV. SHELBY, COM. PERRY, COL. CROGRAN, Cot. Davies, and others, including in the illustrious camlogue even Thomas Rivenia satisfaction the dauntiess spirit of fortitude victoriously displayed by every description of troops engaged, as well as the collected firmness which distin-guished their commander on an occasion requiring the utmost exertions of valour and discipline. James Manison in his mesange to Congress, Nov. 1812, said,

An ample force from the States of Kentucky Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Virginia, is placed, with the addition of a few regulars under the command of Brigadier Gen. HARRISON, possesses the entire confidence of his fellow soldiers, among whom are citizens, some of them volunteers in the ranks, not less distinguished by their political stations than by their, personal merits.

In Mr. Manison's message of Dec. 1813, the compliment was extended, as follows:

The success on Lake Eric having opened a pas-sage on the territory of the enemy, the officer com-manding the Northwestern arms, transferred the war thither, and, rapidly pursuing the hostile capture of the British, and dispersion of the savage cancies, viz :

moment, withhold our meed of applause." The following resolve of both houses of the Legislature of Kentucky, will have a similar effect on the nerves of those who circulate the slander respecting the "white horse," and the slander respecting the "white horse," and the fall of the gallant Col. Daviess:

Legislature of Kentucky, Jan. 7, 1912. Resolved, By the Senate and House of Repre-mentatives of the Seate of Kentucky, that in the late campaign against the Indians upon the Wahnsh Gov. William Henry Harrison has behaved like a hero, a patriot, and a general; and that for his cool deliberate, skilful and grant conduct in the battle of Tipecanoe, he well deserves the warmest thanks of his country and his nation.

Gen. Anthony Wayne, in his Letter to the Sec-retary of War, giving an official account of his sangulary Indian Eattle, in 1762, said:

"My faithful and gallant Lieutenant Harrison, rendered the most essential service, by communica ting my orders in every direction, and by his conduct and bravery, exciting the troops to press for River Ohio.

The following resolution, which passed both houses of Congress, with but one dissenting voice, is calculated to make the " petticout heros," feelif such slanderers can feel any thing but the lash. Whereupon,

"Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress the appointments, agreeably to the nominations who voted in the negative, are—Messis. "The victory of Harrison, was such as would have erured to a Roman General in the best days of the Republic, the honors of a triumph! He put an end to the War in the uppermost Canada." Sentiments of the Hero of Fort Stephenson

I feel every assurance hat he will at all times do me suple justice; and tothing could give me more pain than to see his ennies seize upon this occasion to deal out their unfriendly feelings and acrimonious dislike; and as ong as he continues, (as in my humble opinion he as hitherto done.) to make the wisest arrangements and the most judicious disposition, which the forces under his command will justify, I shall not hesitate ounite with the army in bestowing upon him that confidence which he so richly merits, and which has on no occasion been withheld."

Lastly we come to the neat compliment of loved in the walks of peace, and distinguished by his ability in the councils of his country, he has been yet more illustriously distinguished in the South, who now brandishes his old "chapeless sword with two broken points," and threatens devastating war upon the conquorer of the Brithaps, oftener in action than any one of them, and tish and Indian Coalition of the West!
